

April 8, 2007

Dear Sandy,

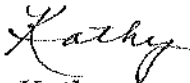

Thank you for the invitation.

I can't believe it's been 45 years (or maybe my knees say 'Yes, you can!'). I return to my place in Port Angeles, Friday, so I won't be able to attend the festivities.

My thoughts will be with you and the Class of 1962. Jesse Jones was my first school to teach high school. It was always special: the students, the faculty, the administration, those super wonderful staffs I had: The Gauntlet and The Talon. How very lucky I was to be exposed to such talent.

I have completed 37 years of teaching. There is a growth of spirit that develops with any endeavor in one's life work. I cherish my teaching years but they have ended. A believer in reincarnation, I sense my next growth adventures will be in veterinary medicine.

I put my arms around each and everyone of you. I wish you love and happiness in your remaining years.

Kathy
Kathryn Timme